Notes

I have had the privilege during the past few days of visiting Port Arthur, Fort William, Edmonton, Calgary and Regina. I regret that the shortness of time at our disposal prevented Mrs. Turner going with me. I certainly enjoyed the meetings both with the officers and the public gatherings at each place visited. I was well impressed with the improvement in the men's Social Work at Fort William and Port Arthur, especially the latter place. There is a great future ahead for The Salvation Army in these Twin Cities.

The Bandmen and Songsters rendered excellent service, and much of the success of these special gatherings can be attributed to their efforts.

Ensign and Mrs. Corning sang a duet, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story," the chorus of which was taken up by the entire audience.

SALVATION SONGS For Harvest Home

Tune—Shall we meet? 134; Song-Book, 778.
Bring your thimble into the storehouse,
Lay your best at Jesus' feet;
Bring an offering to the altar,
Make your sacrifice complete.

Bring your dearest and your best,
Bring your time and bring your talents,
Bring that which cost you pain;
Bring your best, your dearest treasure.

Let God have His own again.
Though you all seem very little,
Cast it in God's treasury;
Jesus always recognizes.

What is heaven cheerfully.
Tune—Come, comrades dear, 135; Psalm, 133;
Song-Book, 790.

Our thankful hearts need joyful songs
To tell Thee how all praise belongs,
By right, dear Lord, to Thee.
Thy power has worked to meet our wants,

Tune—Soon the reaping time, 17; Song-Book, 739.
This is the field, the world below,
In which the Sower came to sow;
Jesus, the wheat—Satan, the tares;
For so the Word of God declares.

And soon the reaping time will come.
Most awful truth, and is it so?
Must all the world the harvest know?
Must all before the Judge appear?

Then for the harvest, Oh, prepare.
To love my sins—a saint to appear—
To grow with wheat and be a tare—
May serve me while on earth below,
Where tares and wheat together grow.

Thy love has silenced all complaints,
Thy goodness, Lord, was my reward.
The sower's scattered seed has grown;
But in it all Thy hand is shown—
It gave the rain and sun,
And quickened into life the seed;
The harvest is Thy work indeed,
And Thine shall be the song.

STO BARNES OPEN-AIR PAVILION
Cor. Vaughan and Purgeon
Sunday, Aug. 22—Commissioner Ellis (assisted by Chief Secretary).

Monday, Aug. 23—Brigadier Phillips. Meetings commence at 2:15 p.m.

EDMONTON L. Alta.—On Sunday, Aug. 8, Commandant and Mrs. Hoddinot were in charge and we had some very good meetings. God saved very many and we had the joy of seeing three souls seek the Lord. There was a good attendance at all meetings.

One young man who was in the meeting at night requested to speak to the Officer in charge, and said he had been converted one year but had never been inside The Salvation Army here. He felt that God had led him there, and that He wanted him in The Army. He was present at the Monday night meeting and testified, and manifested that it was his earnest desire to become a Salvationist.

Captain and Lieutenant Dorin were with us in the afternoon meeting. We were delighted to see our comrades.—J. E. C.

PEACE RIVER, ALTA.—We have had a visit from our new Divisional Officer, Staff-Captain Larson, which was enjoyed by one and all. The Staff-Captain's cornet was a great help in the Open-Air.

Our only regret was that we were unable to stay longer, but we trust it will not be long before he pays us a return visit.

On account of a washout at Smoky River the Staff-Captain missed the Peace River train at McLennan, and had to stay over at McLennan until a freight train came along. He received permission to travel on the freight, and had rather an unpleasant trip over this rough section of the line. Nevertheless he finally landed at Judah and was able to walk to Peace River, to Peace River, and eventually arrived, looking tired but thankful to know he was able to keep his appointment. Peace is now growing, and our meetings are now being well attended.

FORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man.—Sunday, Aug. 22, a very fine day, in good in the morning. Men evince deep interest in Lieutenant Nelson's address and the various exercises. Two souls came forward in the Holy meeting, one soul for Salvation at night. We have had a number of visiting comrades here of late, whom we were glad to see and whose services we are grateful. We are looking forward to the visit of Envoys Burditt, who is announced to lead on next Sunday.—Sister Hazard.

TABER, ALTA.—On Aug. 1 we had Major Goodwin and Captain Saunders with us over the river, and our new Officer, Captain Casler, with us for her first Sunday. One soul sought Salvation. Glorious times over the week-end. Praise God!—Maggie Petrie.

Storrow and trouble either soften the heart or harden it.
